C C

v1:

C C7 F
Last night all alone in a bar - room
C G
Met a girl with a drink in her hand,
C C7 F
She had ruby red lips, coal black hair,
C G7 C G
And eyes that would tempt any man
C C7 F
Then she came and sat down at my table,
C G
And she placed her soft hands in mine
C C7 F
I found myself wanting to kiss her,
C G C G7
For temptation was flowing like wine

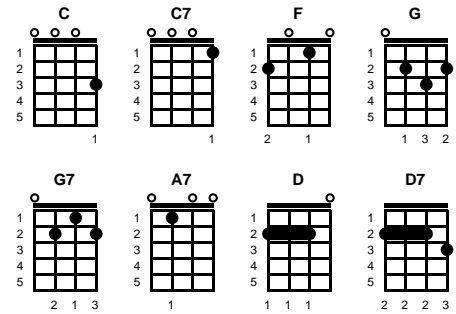

v2:

C C7 F C G
And I was almost persuaded to strip myself of my pride
C C7 F C G7 C A7
Almost persuaded to push my conscience aside
D D7 G
Then we danced and she whispered, I need you!
D A7
Take me away from here and be my man
D D7 G
Then I looked into her eyes and I saw it,
D A7 D A7
The reflection of my wedding band.
D D7 G7 D A7
And I was almost persuaded to let strange lips lead me on
D D7 G7
Yes, I was almost persuaded
D A7 D
But your sweet love made me stop and go home

ending:

D A7 D
But your sweet love made me stop and go home
