Intro: Chords for last 2 lines, v1

v1:

C                                      F6                    C
Somewhere in the mountains  ~  in Northern Alabama..

                  Am                              Dm      G
The Carolina Lady      waits for her man from Tennessee..

C                       F6            C          Am
Somewhere in a motel  ~  out in Oklahoma..

               Dm                  G              C
There's the Alabama dreamer,     that same man from Tennessee..

                                                Em    Dm   C   C

v2:

C                              F6                        C
And sometime late that night  ~  the lonely wakes her gently..

                          Am                    Dm   G
And knocks at her door  ~  but she won't give in..

              C                      F6            C              Am
But like every other woman  ~  she needs to feel wanted..

         Dm                    G                    C          C7
She thinks of makin' love  ~  and goes to sleep again

   chorus:
   F                 Em        C7        F                C
   Carolina, dreamin' lonely,     Carolina, can't you see..

            F               Em           Dm
   You will always be the lady ~ that I dream of holding tight
        G                              Dm      G              C
   That I kiss and tell goodnight.... Carolina   ~   Mountain Dewe

   Em          Dm          C         C         F#m          Em          D          D

v3:

D                      G6                    D
Sometime that next day   ~  on a Mississippi freeway..

                  Bm                      Em            A
The Alabama dreamer  ~  is homeward bound..

       D                          G6                          D          Bm
His conscience is as clear  ~  as those green eyes of Carolina..

            Em                                    A
And she's waiting with a baby from the love
                               D          D7
Of the only man to lay her down

ending:

          G               F#m     D7       G                    D
Carolina, dreamin' lonely,     Carolina, can't you see..

          G                  F#m          Em
You will always be the lady that I dream of holding tight.
   A                                  Em        A              D
That I kiss and tell goodnight.... Carolina      ~      Mountain Dewe...
        Em      A          D      C   G   D
Carolina    ~    I love you
