Notes

Written by Neil Diamond in 1966 while he was a contract songwriter for Aldon Music in New York's Brill Building, it was first recorded by the Monkees whose version had an advance order of 1,051,280 copies and went gold within two days of release. This was a #1 hit, was sung by Micky Dolenz, and later appeared on the second Monkees album, "More of the Monkees."

The contract with Don Kirshner allowed Diamond to record the song as well; he released the first version on his 1967 album "Just For You." He recorded a slightly different version for the album "September Morn" (1979).

Diamond performed and recorded mostly in E (including both 1967 & 1979 versions), but performed in the key of F several times including:

- I'm A Believer from "Hot August Night III – Live at the Greek Theatre," 2012 (F @ 156)
- I'm A Believer from "Dreams" (F @ 140) [a slow version]
- I'm A Believer from "Classic Diamonds" (F @ 140) [a slow version]

He also performed the song in the key of G:

- I'm A Believer from "Live In America (Live at the Delta Center)," 1993 (G @ 160)
