Southbound Passenger Train (Traditional) (E)

Southbound Passenger Train by Doc Watson and the Boys (1976) Southbound Train by the Birmingham Quartet (1926) First Recording South Bound Passenger Train by The Limeliters (1987)

Intro

Α

В I'm gonna buy me a ticket as long as my arm. Gonna ride that train all night long.

E В Gonna ride (gonna ride), I mean (I mean), on that southbound passenger train. Α I'm gonna buy me a ticket as long as my arm. Gonna ride that train all night long.

E В I'm gonna ride (gonna ride), I mean (I mean), on that southbound passenger train. Until I hear that conductor say "All out For Birming-ham."

В

Ε

I got a letter from my doll babe now that lives in Birming-ham.

She's the cutest little doll babe way down in Birming-ham.

E Well she so sweet daddy, she she so neat, daddy,

Ε That when she walks she knocks you off your feet.

B She is some mama way down from Birming-ham

Ε

В

I gonna ride (gonna ride), I mean (I mean), on that south bound passenger train Α

I hear the engineer say "Put the shovel in the coal."

Ε В Put your head out the window watch the driver roll When i hear that whistle blow its music to my ears F And when I'm with my doll babe I don't shed no lonesome tears E She so sweet daddy she so neat daddy E That when she walks she knocks you off your feet

EBGonna ride (gonna ride), I mean (I mean) on that south bound passenger trainABI'm gonna buy me a ticket as long as my arm. I'm gonna ride that train all night long.EBI'm gonna ride (gonna ride) I mean (I mean) on that south bound passenger trainABUntil I hear that conductor say "All out for Birming-ham."

Note:

The "Birmingham Quartet" also recorded as the Birmingham Jubilee Singers.

- Southbound Train
- Southbound Train

Additional Recordings

- Southbound Passenger Train by the Bryant's Jubilee Quartet (1928)
- Southbound Passenger Train by the Dixie Jubilee Choir (1928) [No recording found]
- Southbound Passenger Train by the Etude Ethiopian Chorus (Clip from "Pardon Me" by Laurel and Hardy, 1931)
- Southbound Passenger Train by the Masters Family (1952) (With lyrics)
- Southbound Passenger Train by Boot Hill (1977)
- Southbound Passenger Train by the Stanford Mendicants (1982)
- Southbound Passenger Train by Eclectic Acoustic (Live, 2010)
- Southbound Passenger Train by Pollo Loco from "Three Hombres on the Trail" (2017)

Adapted

• Pullman Passenger Train by the Pullman Porters Quartette (1928)

Southbound Passenger Train (Traditional) (C)

Southbound Passenger Train by Doc Watson and the Boys (1976) Southbound Train by the Birmingham Quartet (1926) First Recording South Bound Passenger Train by The Limeliters (1987)

Intro F

G I'm gonna buy me a ticket as long as my arm. Gonna ride that train all night long.

G
 Gonna ride (gonna ride), I mean (I mean), on that southbound passenger train.
 F
 G
 I'm gonna buy me a ticket as long as my arm. Gonna ride that train all night long.

CGI'm gonna ride (gonna ride), I mean (I mean), on that southbound passenger train.FGCUntil I hear that conductor say "All out For Birming-ham."

G

С

I got a letter from my doll babe now that lives in Birming-ham.

She's the cutest little doll babe way down in Birming-ham.

Well she so sweet daddy, she she so neat, daddy,

С

That when she walks she knocks you off your feet.

G C She is some mama way down from Birming-ham

С

G

I gonna ride (gonna ride), I mean (I mean), on that south bound passenger train F

I hear the engineer say "Put the shovel in the coal."

GCPut your head out the window watch the driver rollGCWhen i hear that whistle blow its music to my earsGCAnd when I'm with my doll babe I don't shed no lonesome tearsCShe so sweet daddy she so neat daddyCThat when she walks she knocks you off your feet

CGGonna ride (gonna ride), I mean (I mean) on that south bound passenger trainFGI'm gonna buy me a ticket as long as my arm. I'm gonna ride that train all night long.CGI'm gonna ride (gonna ride) I mean (I mean) on that south bound passenger trainFGCUntil I hear that conductor say "All out for Birming-ham."

Note:

The "Birmingham Quartet" also recorded as the Birmingham Jubilee Singers.

- Southbound Train
- Southbound Train

Additional Recordings

- Southbound Passenger Train by the Bryant's Jubilee Quartet (1928)
- Southbound Passenger Train by the Dixie Jubilee Choir (1928) [No recording found]
- Southbound Passenger Train by the Etude Ethiopian Chorus (Clip from "Pardon Me" by Laurel and Hardy, 1931)
- Southbound Passenger Train by the Masters Family (1952) (With lyrics)
- Southbound Passenger Train by Boot Hill (1977)
- Southbound Passenger Train by the Stanford Mendicants (1982)
- Southbound Passenger Train by Eclectic Acoustic (Live, 2010)
- Southbound Passenger Train by Pollo Loco from "Three Hombres on the Trail" (2017)

Adapted

• Pullman Passenger Train by the Pullman Porters Quartette (1928)

Southbound Passenger Train (Traditional) (G)

Southbound Passenger Train by Doc Watson and the Boys (1976) Southbound Train by the Birmingham Quartet (1926) First Recording South Bound Passenger Train by The Limeliters (1987)

D

Intro

С

I'm gonna buy me a ticket as long as my arm. Gonna ride that train all night long.

Gonna ride (gonna ride), I mean (I mean), on that southbound passenger train.
 C
 D
 I'm gonna buy me a ticket as long as my arm. Gonna ride that train all night long.

GDI'm gonna ride (gonna ride), I mean (I mean), on that southbound passenger train.CDGUntil I hear that conductor say "All out For Birming-ham."

D G I got a letter from my doll babe now that lives in Birming-ham.

G She's the cutest little doll babe way down in Birming-ham. G Well she so sweet daddy, she she so neat, daddy, G That when she walks she knocks you off your feet. D G

She is some mama way down from Birming-ham

G

D

I gonna ride (gonna ride), I mean (I mean), on that south bound passenger train C

I hear the engineer say "Put the shovel in the coal."

DGPut your head out the window watch the driver rollDGWhen i hear that whistle blow its music to my earsDGAnd when I'm with my doll babe I don't shed no lonesome tearsGShe so sweet daddy she so neat daddyGThat when she walks she knocks you off your feet

 G
 D

 Gonna ride (gonna ride), I mean (I mean) on that south bound passenger train

 C
 D

 I'm gonna buy me a ticket as long as my arm. I'm gonna ride that train all night long.

 G
 D

 I'm gonna ride (gonna ride) I mean (I mean) on that south bound passenger train

 C
 D

 I'm gonna ride (gonna ride) I mean (I mean) on that south bound passenger train

 C
 D

 Until I hear that conductor say "All out for Birming-ham."

Note:

The "Birmingham Quartet" also recorded as the Birmingham Jubilee Singers.

- Southbound Train
- Southbound Train

Additional Recordings

- Southbound Passenger Train by the Bryant's Jubilee Quartet (1928)
- Southbound Passenger Train by the Dixie Jubilee Choir (1928) [No recording found]
- Southbound Passenger Train by the Etude Ethiopian Chorus (Clip from "Pardon Me" by Laurel and Hardy, 1931)
- Southbound Passenger Train by the Masters Family (1952) (With lyrics)
- Southbound Passenger Train by Boot Hill (1977)
- Southbound Passenger Train by the Stanford Mendicants (1982)
- Southbound Passenger Train by Eclectic Acoustic (Live, 2010)
- Southbound Passenger Train by Pollo Loco from "Three Hombres on the Trail" (2017)

Adapted

• Pullman Passenger Train by the Pullman Porters Quartette (1928)