Don't Say No Again

Alberto Testa. Gordon Mills & Jimmy Fontana

v1:

      A                              B
Do you lie awake at night thinking about me
      E7                        A      E7
Is there still a spark of love left in your heart
      A                       D
If you ever have regrets and all about me
        B7                        E7
Why not listen to your heart and don't say no - o - o

chorus:
      A     B                    G#m      C#m
   My life is yours, these waiting arms are yours
        E      A     B7            E     B7     E    E7
   This aching heart is yours, so don't say no,   no,    no
        A       B                G#m
   My love I'll give these eager lips
       C#m          A
   I'll give to you alone
       B7                 A      E    E7
   I'll give so don't say no   again

v2:
```
      A                          B
If you think about the joy we knew together
        E7                      A    E7
Have you ever shed a tear with me in mind
        A                          D
If you feel our love's not lost and gone forever
         B7                        E7
Why not listen to your heart and don't say no - o - o  -- REPEAT FROM CHORUS
```
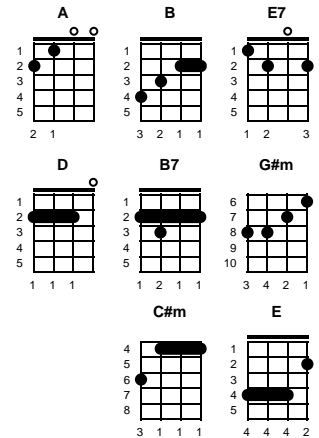

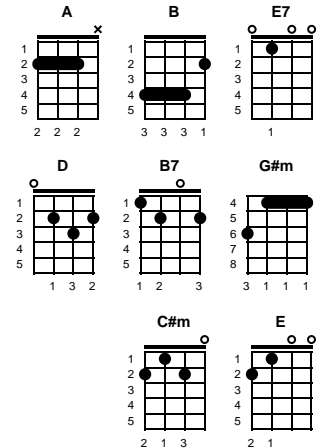

ending:
```
      A     B                    G#m      C#m
My life is yours, these waiting arms are yours
      E     A     B7            E    B7    E    E7
This aching heart is yours, so don't say no,   no,    no
        A       B                G#m
My love I'll give these eager lips
     C#m          A
I'll give to you alone
     B7                 A      E
I'll give so don't say no   again
```
