

Eight Foot Two, Solid Blue

lyrics by Allan Sherman, Five Foot Two music by Ray Henderson

Key of C

D7 G7 C
(Has anybody seen my gal?) - Chords Only, 2x

C E7 A7
Eight foot two, solid blue, five transistors in each shoe,
D7 G7 C G7
Has anybody seen my gal?

C E7 A7
Lucite nose, rust-proof toes, and when her antenna glows,
D7 G7 C
She's the cutest Martian gal

E7 A7
You know she promised me, recently, she wouldn't stray,
D7 G7
But come the dawn, she was gone, eighteen billion miles away

C E7 A7
Her steering wheel has sex appeal, her evening gown is stainless steel,
D7 G7 C G7
Has anybody seen my gal?

C E7 A7
How I miss all the bliss of her sweet hydraulic kiss,
D7 G7 C G7
Has anybody seen my gal?

C E7 A7
Lovely shape, custom built, squeeze her wrong and she says "tilt",
D7 G7 C
Has anybody seen my gal?

E7 A7
She does the cutest tricks, with her six stereo ears
D7 G7
When she walks by, spacemen cry, specially when she shifts her gears

C E7 A7
If she's found, rush like mad, put her on a launching pad,
D7 G7 C
Down at Cape Canaveral

ending:

D7 G7 D7 G7
And shoot me back my cutie, my supersonic beauty,
D7 G7 C D7 G7 C
Send me back my Martian gal, please send me back my Martian gal
