

Scarborough Fair
Ewan MacColl, Martin Carthy & Paul Simon

Key of F
3/4

intro: chords for first verse

Dm C Dm F Dm F Dm
Are you going to Scarborough Fair,~~~ Parsely, sage, rosemary and thyme
F C Dm C Dm
Remember me to one who lives there, she once was a true love of mine

Dm C Dm F Dm F Dm
Tell her to make me a cambric shirt,~~~ parsely, sage, rosemary and thyme
F C Dm C Dm
Without any seams or fine needlework, then she'll be a true love of mine

Dm C Dm F Dm F Dm
Tell her to find me an acre of land,~~~ parsely, sage, rosemary and thyme
F C Dm C Dm
Between the salt water and the sea strand, then she'll be a true love of mine

Dm C Dm F Dm F Dm
Tell her to reap it in a sickle of leather,~~~ parsely, sage, rosemary and thyme
F C Dm C Dm
And to gather it all in a bunch of heather, then she'll be a true love of mine

Dm C Dm F Dm F Dm
When you've done and finished your work,~~~ parsely, sage, rosemary and thyme
F C Dm C Dm
Then come to me for your cambric shirt, and you shall be a true love of mine ending:

Dm C Dm
And you shall be a true love of mine
