Intro A D A E7 A

When the nights grow long, birds stop singing songs

And the summer fades to gray

All the leaves around have fallen on the ground

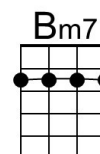

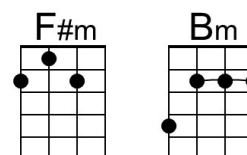

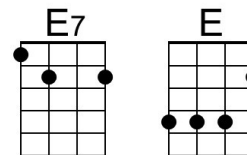

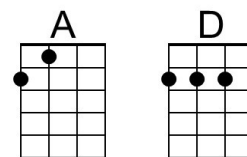

And know that winter's on its way

When the cold wind blows, honey, I don't know

How much longer I can wait

It won't be long, my dear, 'til Christmas day is here

So promise me you won't be late

Chorus

I don't need no diamond rings

I don't need no fancy clothes

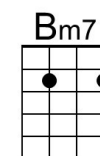

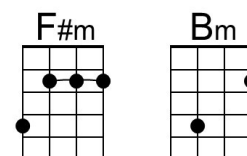

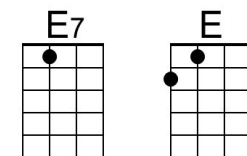

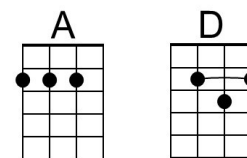

All I need is you with me under-neath the mistle-toe

Don't need no big surprise, please don't spend a dime

Don't need the mountains or the sea

If I could have my way, I'd wish for you to stay

And be with me all through the year

A D
I'll sit up all night long and wait 'til you come home

A E7
So I can have you close to me

A D
I'll pull your body near, so hurry home my dear

A E7 A
And be with me on Christmas Eve

A D
When the cold wind blows, Honey, I don't know

A E7
How much longer I can wait

A D
It won't be long, my dear, 'til Christmas day is here

A E7 A
So promise me you won't be late
