D C G D

G
Goodbye Norma Jean

Though I never C knew you at all

You had the grace to G hold yourself

While those around you C crawled

They crawled out of the G woodwork

And they C whispered into your brain

They set you on the G treadmill

And they made you change your C name

And it D seems to me you D7 lived your life

Like a G candle in the C wind

Never G knowing who to cling to

When the D rain set in

And I C would have liked to have known you

But I was Em just a kid

Your candle burned out D long before

Your C legend ever G did

G
Loneliness was tough

The toughest C role you ever played

Hollywood created a G superstar

And pain was the price you C paid

Even when you G died

Oh the C press still hounded you

C All the papers had to say

Was that G Marilyn was found in the C nude

And it D seems to me you D7 lived your life

Like a G candle in the C wind

Never G knowing who to cling to

When the D rain set in

And I C would have liked to have known you

But I was Em just a kid

Your candle burned out D long before

Your C legend ever G did

G
Goodbye Norma Jean

Though I never C knew you at all

You had the G grace to hold yourself

While those around you C crawled

G
Goodbye Norma Jean

From the young man <sup>C</sup> in the 22nd row

Who sees you as something more than <sup>G</sup> sexual

More than just our Marilyn Mon-roe <sup>C</sup>

And it <sup>D</sup> seems to me you <sup>D7</sup> lived your life

Like a <sup>G</sup> candle in the <sup>C</sup> wind

Never <sup>G</sup> knowing who to cling to

When the <sup>D</sup> rain set in

And I <sup>C</sup> would have liked to have known you

But I was <sup>Em</sup> just a kid

Your candle burned out <sup>D</sup> long before
