1 "San Perry-Ann" or "san fairy ann" is a French phrase picked up by British soldiers during World War I. The actual phrase is "ça ne fait rien," which translates to "it means nothing." Information submitted by Jon Bartlett to a Mudcat Cafe thread, "Lyr Req: With Her Head Tucked Underneath Her Arm." According to Jim McLean, "In colloquial French, it's 'ça fait rien'." This was later corrected by "Guest" to "Ça ne fait rien."
