St. Patrick's Day Ukulele Zoom Limerick by Deb Fitzloff (March 17, 2021)

There once was a musical group
Who played near and far on a uke.
But now from their rooms
Each of them zooms
Unless someone doesn't unmute!

A Jug of Punch (Paddy Clancy / Tom Clancy / Liam Clancy / Tommy Makem)

One pleasant evening in the month of June And if I get drunk, well, the money's me own And if they don't like me they can leave me alone As I was sitting with my glass and spoon I'll tune me fiddle and I'll rosin me bow A small bird sat on an ivy bunch And the song he sang was "The Jug of Punch" And I'll be welcome wherever I go Too ra loo ra loo, too ra loo ra lay, Too ra loo ra loo, too ra loo ra lay, Too ra loo ra loo, too ra loo ra lay Too ra loo ra loo, too ra loo ra lay A small bird sat on an ivy bunch I'll tune me fiddle and I'll rosin me bow And the song he sang was "The Jug of Punch" And I'll be welcome wherever I go G G What more diversion can a man desire? And when I'm dead and in my grave Than to sit him down by snug turf fire No costly tombstone will I have Upon his knee a pretty wench Just lay me down in my native peat And on the table a jug of punch With a jug of punch at my head and feet Too ra loo ra loo, too ra loo ra lay, Too ra loo ra loo, too ra loo ra lay, Too ra loo ra loo, too ra loo ra lay Too ra loo ra loo, too ra loo ra lay Upon his knee a pretty wench Just lay me down in my native peat And on the table a jug of punch With a jug of punch at my head and feet G G Let the doctors come with all their art They'll make no impression upon my heart Even a cripple forgets his hunch When he's snug outside of a jug of punch Too ra loo ra loo, too ra loo ra lay, BARITONE G Too ra loo ra loo, too ra loo ra lay Even a cripple forgets his hunch When he's snug outside of a jug of punch

Be-trayed by the black velvet band

Chorus

C

Her eyes they shone like diamonds

F G

I thought her the queen of the land

And her hair hung over her shoulder

F G (

Tied up with a black velvet band

I took a stroll down Broadway
Intending not long for to stay
When who should I meet but this pretty fair maid
Come traipsing along the highway
She was both fair and handsome
Her neck it was white like a swan
And her hair hung down from her shoulders
Held up with a black velvet band. Chorus

I took a stroll with this pretty fair maid
Met a gentleman as he passed by
Sure, I knew she meant the doing of him
By the look in her roguish black eye
A gold watch she took from his pocket
And placed it right into my hand
And the very first thing that I said was
"What's this?" to the black velvet band. Chorus

But before the Judge and the Jury
Next morning I had to appear
And the judge he says to me "Young man,
Your case it is proven and clear
I'll give you seven years penal servitude
To be spent far away from the land
Far away from your friends and companions"
Betrayed by the black velvet band.

Chorus

So come all you jolly young fellows
A warning take from me
And if you go out on the town, me boys,
Beware of the pretty Colleens
They'll feed you with strong drink, my lads,
'Til you are unable to stand
And the very first thing that you'll know is
You've landed in Van Diemen's Land

C

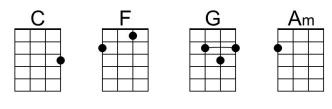

Her eyes they shone like diamonds

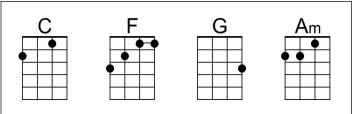

I thought she was queen of the land

C Am

Now I'm far from my friends and com-panions

Be-trayed by the black velvet band

The Wearing Of The Green (Dion Boucicault, 1864; anonymous ballad, 1841) (C)

Intro (last line of verse) F C G C O Paddy dear, and did ye hear the news that's goin' round? The shamrock is for-bid by law to grow on Irish ground! Saint Patrick's Day no more we'll keep, his color can't be seen, For there's a bloody law ag'in the wearin' of the green." I met with Napper Tandy, and he took me by the hand, And he said, "How's poor old Ireland, and how does she stand?" "She's the most distressful country that ever you have seen, For they're hanging men and women there, for the wearin' of the green." "Then since the color we must wear is England's cruel red, Sure Ireland's sons will ne'er forget, the blood that they have shed, Sure take the Shamrock from your hat, and cast it on the sod, But 'twill take root and flourish, still tho' under foot 'tis trod, When law can stop the blades of grass from growing as they grow, And when the leaves in summer-time their verdure dare not shun. Then I will change the color I wear in my corbeen, But till that day, please God, I'll stick to the wearin' o' the green. Bari

Notes

"The Raggle Taggle Gypsy" is a very old folk song with numerous names. Hundreds of versions of the song survived in the oral tradition well into the twentieth century.

There are also several related songs including "The Whistling Gypsy" written by Leo McGuire in 1951. According to McGuire, the song was written on a dare - that he could write a popular Irish song with a happy ending. In fact the song was well known with very few changes in the lyrics for many years before MaGuire claimed copyright on it. It was first recorded by Joe Lynch in 1952 as "The Whistling Gypsy." A notable early recording was The Whistling Gypsy by Rose Brennan in 1953.

This song also goes under several names, even by the same group. The Clancy Brothers recorded it both as The Whistling Gypsy and The Whistling Gypsy Rover.

When Irish Eyes Are Smiling (C)
Lyrics by Chauncy Olcott & George Graff, Jr.; Music by Ernest R. Ball (1912)
When Irish Eyes Are Smiling by John McCormick (1917) (F) (¾ Time)

Intro F D7 C A7 D7 G7 C G7 And when Irish eyes are smiling, sure, they steal your heart a-way.	C	G7
C G7
There's a tear in your eye, and I'm wondering why, C G
For it never should be there at all. C A7	G	F
With such pow'r in your smile, sure a stone you'd be-guile, D7 G7		•
So there's never a teardrop should fall. C G7
When your sweet lilting laughter's like some fairy song, C C7 F	A 7	D ₇
And your eyes twinkle bright as can be; D7 G G7		• •
You should laugh all the while, and all other times smile, D D7 G - G7
And now, smile a smile for me.
Chorus C C7 F C	C ₇
When Irish eyes are smiling, sure, 'tis like the morn in Spring.
In the lilt of Irish laughter, you can hear the angels sing.
C C7 F C When Irish hearts are happy, all the world seems bright and gay.	C	G7
F D7 C A7 D7 G7 C And when Irish eyes are smiling, sure, they steal your heart a-way.
C G7
For your smile is a part of the love in your heart, C G	G	F
And it makes even sunshine more bright. F C A7		•
Like the linnet's sweet song, crooning all the day long, D7 G7
Comes your laughter so tender and light. G7	A 7	D7
For the springtime of life, is the sweetest of all C C7 F	• •
There is ne'er a real care or re-gret; D7 G G7
And while springtime is ours, throughout all of youth's hours, D D7 G - G7	C7
Let us smile each chance we get. Chorus

Notes

- 1. Paddy's lost the craic means Ireland has lost its sense of fun, sense of humor, or it's been taken away from them.
- 2. Delira from the root word for delirious, delight
- 3. From Urban Dictionary, 2011: delira and excira Irish exclamation of happiness, popularised by chat show host Gay Byrne. Probable abbreviation of delirious and excited. "I was delira and excira when I heard Gay Gay Byrne is retiring from the Late Late show".
- 4. 'Fan sa bhaile le do thoil' means 'stay at home please!'
- 5. 'Dochas linn Naomh Padraig' means 'give us hope St Patrick'

The songwriter says she played it in G with a capo on the second fret (G, C, D7). This might be good for those who have a hard time playing B, E, and F#7

A Scottish Soldier (Andy Stewart, 1960; Tune "Green Hills of Tyrol")

G
There was a soldier, a Scottish soldier

D
G
Who wandered far away and soldiered far away

G
There was none bolder, with good broad shoulders

D
D7
G
He fought in many a fray, and fought and won

G
He'd seen the glory, he'd told the story

D
G
Of battles glorious and deeds victorious

G
But now he's sighing, his heart is crying

Chorus:

Because those green hills are not Highland Hills

D
G
Or the Island Hills, they're not my land's hills

C
G
And fair as these green foreign hills may be,

D
D7
G
They are not the hills of home

To leave these green hills of Tyrol

G
And now this soldier, this Scottish soldier
D
G
Who wandered far away and soldiered far away
G
Sees leaves are falling, and Death is calling
T
G
And he will fade away in that far land

He called his piper, his trusty piper

D
G
And bade him sound a lay a pibroch sad to play
G
Upon a hillside, a Scottish hillside
D
D7
G
Not on these green hills of Tyrol

G

And now this soldier, this Scottish soldier

D

G

Will wander far no more and soldier far no more G

And on a hillside, a Scottish hillside D D7 G

You'll see a piper play his soldier home

G

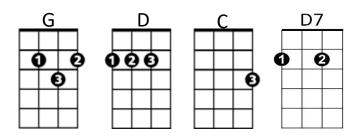

He's seen the glory, he's told the story

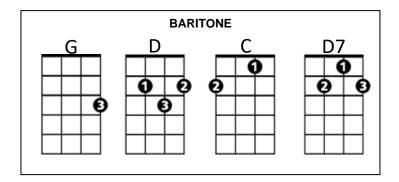

Of battles glorious and deeds victorious

The bugles cease now, he is at peace now

Far from those green hills of Tyrol

Mary Mac (Traditional)

Dm

There's a little lass and her name is Mary Mac

Make no mistake, she's the girl I'm gonna track

Lots of other fellows, wanna get up on her back Dm

But I'm thinking that they'd have to get up early

Chorus:

Dm

Mary Mac's father's making Mary Mac marry me

My father's making me marry Mary Mac

Well, I'm gonna marry Mary

For my Mary to take care of me

Dm

We'll all be making merry when I marry Mary Mac

Rumply umpty dumpty dumty dumty ay

Dm

Well, this little lass, she has a lot of class

Got a lot of brass

And her father thinks I'm gas

So I'd be a silly ass

for to let the matter pass

Dm

My father says she suits me really fairly

(Chorus)

Dm

Mary and her mother go an awful lot together

In fact you'd hardly ever see

The one without the other

Dm

And all the people wonder if it's Mary or her mother

Or the both of them together that I'm courting

(Chorus)

Dm

The Wedding's on a Wednesday

And everything's arranged

Soon her name will change to mine

Unless her mind is changed

Dm

We're making the arrangements

And I'm just about deranged

Dm

For marriage is an awful undertaking

(Chorus)

Dm

Sure to be a grand affair

And grander than a fair

There's goin' to be a coach and pair

For every pair that's there

We'll dine upon the finest fare,

I'm sure to get me share

Dm

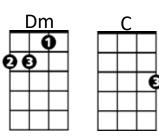

If I don't I'll be very much mistaken

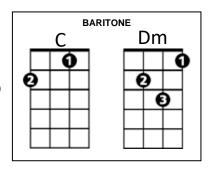

(Chorus)

Repeat Verse 1:

Scotland the Brave (Cliff Hanley, 1950. Arr. Marion McClurg)

C Hark when the night is falling, Hear! Hear! The pipes are calling, Loudly and proudly calling, down thro' the glen. There where the hills are sleeping, now feel the blood a-leaping, High as the spirits of the old Highland men. Am

G

Chorus:

Towering in gallant fame, Scotland my mountain hame, High may your proud standards gloriously wa ve! Land of my high endeavour, land of the shining river, Land of my heart for ever, Scotland the Brave.

C High in the misty Highlands out by the purple islands, Brave are the hearts that beat beneath Scottish skies. Wild are the winds to meet you, staunch are the friends that greet you, Kind as the love that shines from fair maidens' eyes.

(Chorus)

Far off in sunlit places, sad are the Scottish faces,

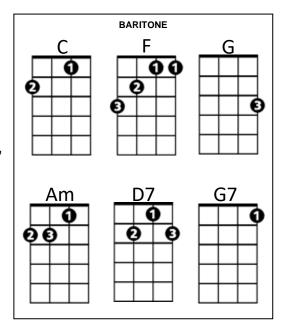

Yearning to feel the kiss of sweet Scottish rain.

Where are the tropics beaming, love sets the heart a-dreaming,

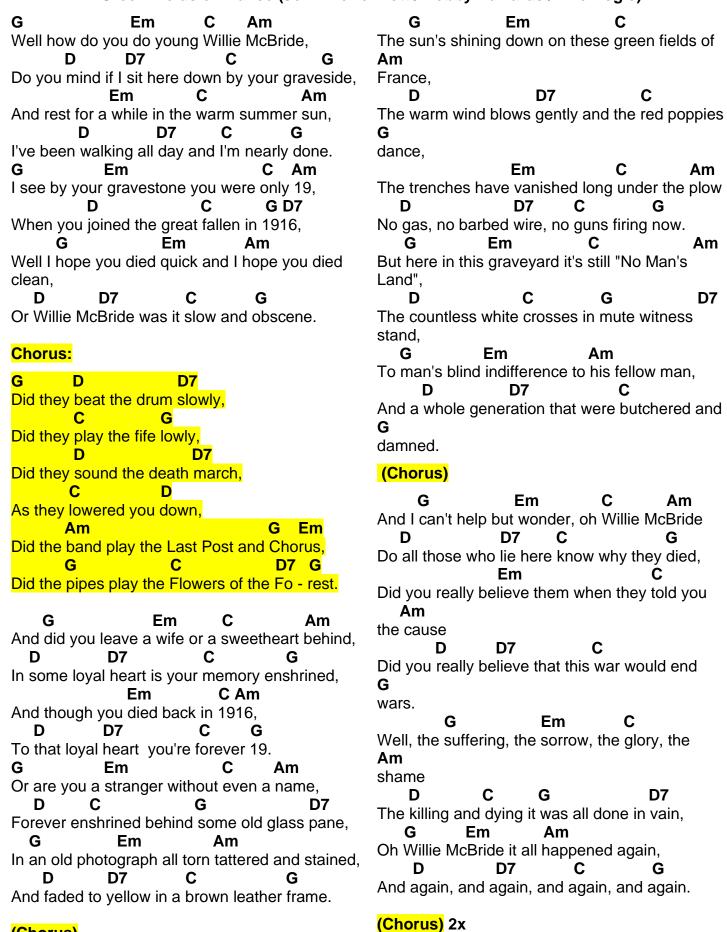

Longing and dreaming for the hameland again.

F

5

Until the day that I was born

C

And things got rather tough.

(Chorus)

Baptized by father Reilly
I was rushed away by car
To be made a little Orangeman,
Me father's shining star.
I was christened David Anthony
But still in spite of that
To me father I was Billy
While me mother called me Pat.

(Chorus)

With mother every Sunday To Mass I'd proudly stroll And after that the orange Lord Would try to save me soul. And both sides tried to claim me, But I was smart because I'd play the flute, I'd play the harp Depending were I was

(Chorus)

And when I'd sing those rebel songs
Much to me mother's joy
Me father would jump up and say
"Look here, now Bill me boy!
That's quite enough of that lot.",
He'd toss me o'er a coin
He'd have me sing The Orange Flute
Or the Heroes of The Boyne.

(Chorus)

One day me Ma's relations
Came round to visit me.
Just as my father's kinfolk were
Sitting down to tea.
We tried to smooth things over,
But they all began to fight.
And me, being strictly neutral,
I kicked everyone in sight.

(Chorus)

My parents never could agree
About my type of school.
My learning was all done at home,
That's why I'm such a fool.
They've both passed on, God rest 'em,
But I was left between
That awful color problem
Of the Orange and the Green.

(Chorus)
