There once was a musical group
Who played near and far on a uke.
But now from their rooms
Each of them zooms
Unless someone doesn't unmute!

A Jug of Punch (Paddy Clancy / Tom Clancy / Liam Clancy / Tommy Makem)

One pleasant evening in the month of June And if I get drunk, well, the money's me own And if they don't like me they can leave me alone As I was sitting with my glass and spoon I'll tune me fiddle and I'll rosin me bow A small bird sat on an ivy bunch And the song he sang was "The Jug of Punch" And I'll be welcome wherever I go Too ra loo ra loo, too ra loo ra lay, Too ra loo ra loo, too ra loo ra lay, Too ra loo ra loo, too ra loo ra lay Too ra loo ra loo, too ra loo ra lay A small bird sat on an ivy bunch I'll tune me fiddle and I'll rosin me bow And the song he sang was "The Jug of Punch" And I'll be welcome wherever I go G G What more diversion can a man desire? And when I'm dead and in my grave Than to sit him down by snug turf fire No costly tombstone will I have Upon his knee a pretty wench Just lay me down in my native peat And on the table a jug of punch With a jug of punch at my head and feet Too ra loo ra loo, too ra loo ra lay, Too ra loo ra loo, too ra loo ra lay, Too ra loo ra loo, too ra loo ra lay Too ra loo ra loo, too ra loo ra lay Upon his knee a pretty wench Just lay me down in my native peat And on the table a jug of punch With a jug of punch at my head and feet G G Let the doctors come with all their art They'll make no impression upon my heart Even a cripple forgets his hunch When he's snug outside of a jug of punch Too ra loo ra loo, too ra loo ra lay, BARITONE G Too ra loo ra loo, too ra loo ra lay Even a cripple forgets his hunch When he's snug outside of a jug of punch

Arranged by Ronnie Drew, Luke Kelly Barney MacKenna, Claran Bourke, John Sheehan Black Velvet Band by The Dubliners from "A Drop of the Hard Stuff"

Intro Last line of Chorus) F | G | C | C

In a neat little town they call Belfast

Ap-prenticed to trade I was bound

And many an hour of sweet happiness

I've I spent in that neat little town

But a sad misfortune's come over me

Which caused me to stray from the land

Far a-way from me friends and com-panions

Be-trayed by the black velvet band

Chorus

Her eyes they shone like diamonds

I thought her the queen of the land

And her hair hung over her shoulder

G

Tied up with a black velvet band

I took a stroll down Broadway Intending not long for to stay When who should I meet but this pretty fair maid Come traipsing along the highway She was both fair and handsome Her neck it was white like a swan And her hair hung down from her shoulders

I took a stroll with this pretty fair maid Met a gentleman as he passed by Sure, I knew she meant the doing of him By the look in her roquish black eye A gold watch she took from his pocket And placed it right into my hand And the very first thing that I said was

"What's this?" to the black velvet band. Chorus

Held up with a black velvet band. Chorus

But before the Judge and the Jury Next morning I had to appear And the judge he says to me "Young man, Your case it is proven and clear I'll give you seven years penal servitude To be spent far away from the land Far away from your friends and companions" Betrayed by the black velvet band. Chorus

So come all you jolly young fellows A warning take from me And if you go out on the town, me boys, Beware of the pretty Colleens They'll feed you with strong drink, my lads, 'Til you are unable to stand And the very first thing that you'll know is You've landed in Van Diemen's Land

My Wild Irish Rose by the Irish Tenors - Version 2

Intro	С	Caug	F	С	D7	G7	С	G7

Caug If you listen I'll sing you a sweet little song D7

Of a flower that's now drooped and dead С

Caug Yet dearer to me, yes than all of its mates

Though each holds aloft its proud head

'Twas given to me by a girl that I know

Since we've met, faith, I've known no repose

C Cauq She is dearer by far than the world's brightest

F C

G7 And I call her my Wild Irish Rose

Chorus

C G7 C

My Wild Irish Rose, G7

The sweetest flower that grows G7

You may search everywhere,

G7 But none can compare

D7 G G7 D

With my Wild Irish Rose

G7 C

My Wild Irish Rose,

G7 The dearest flower that grows

G7

And some day for my sake,

G7 She may let me take

D7

The bloom from my Wild Irish Rose

Caug

They may sing of their roses,

Which by other names

G7

Would smell just as sweetly, they say

Caug

But I know that my Rose would never consent

To have that sweet name taken away

Her glances are shy when-e'er I pass by

The bower where my true love grows

Caug

And my one wish has been

That someday I may win G7

The heart of my Wild Irish Rose. Chorus

Intro (last line of verse) F C G C O Paddy dear, and did ye hear the news that's goin' round? The shamrock is for-bid by law to grow on Irish ground! Saint Patrick's Day no more we'll keep, his color can't be seen, For there's a bloody law ag'in the wearin' of the green." I met with Napper Tandy, and he took me by the hand, And he said, "How's poor old Ireland, and how does she stand?" "She's the most distressful country that ever you have seen, For they're hanging men and women there, for the wearin' of the green." "Then since the color we must wear is England's cruel red, Sure Ireland's sons will ne'er forget, the blood that they have shed, Sure take the Shamrock from your hat, and cast it on the sod, But 'twill take root and flourish, still tho' under foot 'tis trod, When law can stop the blades of grass from growing as they grow, And when the leaves in summer-time their verdure dare not shun. Then I will change the color I wear in my corbeen, But till that day, please God, I'll stick to the wearin' o' the green.

Notes

"The Raggle Taggle Gypsy" is a very old folk song with numerous names. Hundreds of versions of the song survived in the oral tradition well into the twentieth century.

There are also several related songs including "The Whistling Gypsy" written by Leo McGuire in 1951. According to McGuire, the song was written on a dare - that he could write a popular Irish song with a happy ending. In fact the song was well known with very few changes in the lyrics for many years before MaGuire claimed copyright on it. It was first recorded by Joe Lynch in 1952 as "The Whistling Gypsy." A notable early recording was The Whistling Gypsy by Rose Brennan in 1953.

This song also goes under several names, even by the same group. The Clancy Brothers recorded it both as The Whistling Gypsy and The Whistling Gypsy Rover.

Notes

- 1. Paddy's lost the craic means Ireland has lost its sense of fun, sense of humor, or it's been taken away from them.
- 2. Delira from the root word for delirious, delight
- 3. From Urban Dictionary, 2011: delira and excira Irish exclamation of happiness, popularised by chat show host Gay Byrne. Probable abbreviation of delirious and excited. "I was delira and excira when I heard Gay Gay Byrne is retiring from the Late Late show".
- 4. 'Fan sa bhaile le do thoil' means 'stay at home please!'
- 5. 'Dochas linn Naomh Padraig' means 'give us hope St Patrick'

The songwriter says she played it in G with a capo on the second fret (G, C, D7). This might be good for those who have a hard time playing B, E, and F#7

If you'd agree to heed our plea and chaaaase away the virus.

Notes

- Paddy's lost the craic means Ireland has lost its sense of fun, sense of humor, or it's been taken away from them.
- Delira from the root word for delirious, delight
- From Urban Dictionary, 2011: delira and excira Irish exclamation of happiness, popularised by chat show host Gay Byrne. Probable abbreviation of delirious and excited. "I was delira and excira when I heard Gay Gay Byrne is retiring from the Late Late show".
- 'Fan sa bhaile le do thoil' means 'stay at home please!'
- 'Dochas linn Naomh Padraig' means 'give us hope St Patrick'

The songwriter says she played it in G with a capo on the second fret (G, C, D7). This might be good for those who have a hard time playing B, E, and F#7

The Green Fields of France (Eric Bogle, 1976) (G) Originally "No Man's Land" – The Green Fields of France by John McDermott

Well how do you do young Willie McBride,
D D7 C G
Do you mind if I sit here down by your graveside,
Em C Am
And rest for a while in the warm summer sun,
D D7 C G
I've been walking all day and I'm nearly done.
G Em C Am
I see by your gravestone you were only 19, D C G D7
When you joined the great fallen in 1916,
Ğ Em Am
Well I hope you died quick and I hope you died clean,
D D7 C G
Or Willie McBride was it slow and obscene.
Chorus
G D D7 C G
Did they beat the drum slowly? Did they play the fife lowly?
D D7 C D
Did they sound the death march? As they lowered you down?
Am G Em
Did the band play the Last Post and Chorus?
G C D7 G
Did the pipes play the Flowers of the Fo - rest?
G Em C Am
And did you leave a wife or a sweetheart behind,  D  C  G
And did you leave a wife or a sweetheart behind,  D
And did you leave a wife or a sweetheart behind,
And did you leave a wife or a sweetheart behind,  D D7 C G In some loyal heart is your memory enshrined,  Em C Am
And did you leave a wife or a sweetheart behind,  D D7 C G  In some loyal heart is your memory enshrined,
And did you leave a wife or a sweetheart behind,  D D7 C G  In some loyal heart is your memory enshrined,  Em C Am  And though you died back in 1916,
And did you leave a wife or a sweetheart behind,  D D7 C G In some loyal heart is your memory enshrined,  Em C Am  And though you died back in 1916,  D D7 C G
And did you leave a wife or a sweetheart behind,  D D7 C G  In some loyal heart is your memory enshrined,  Em C Am  And though you died back in 1916,  D D7 C G  To that loyal heart you're forever 19.
And did you leave a wife or a sweetheart behind,  D D7 C G  In some loyal heart is your memory enshrined,  Em C Am  And though you died back in 1916,  D D7 C G  To that loyal heart you're forever 19.  G Em C Am
And did you leave a wife or a sweetheart behind, D D7 C G In some loyal heart is your memory enshrined, Em C Am And though you died back in 1916, D D7 C G To that loyal heart you're forever 19. G Em C Am Or are you a stranger without even a name, D C G D7 Forever enshrined behind some old glass pane,
