A Jug of Punch (Paddy Clancy / Tom Clancy / Liam Clancy / Tommy Makem)

One pleasant evening in the month of June And if I get drunk, well, the money's me own As I was sitting with my glass and spoon And if they don't like me they can leave me alone A small bird sat on an ivy bunch I'll tune me fiddle and I'll rosin me bow And the song he sang was "The Jug of Punch" And I'll be welcome wherever I go Too ra loo ra loo, too ra loo ra lay, Too ra loo ra loo, too ra loo ra lay, Too ra loo ra loo, too ra loo ra lay Too ra loo ra loo, too ra loo ra lay A small bird sat on an ivy bunch I'll tune me fiddle and I'll rosin me bow And the song he sang was "The Jug of Punch" And I'll be welcome wherever I go G G What more diversion can a man desire? And when I'm dead and in my grave Than to sit him down by snug turf fire No costly tombstone will I have Upon his knee a pretty wench Just lay me down in my native peat And on the table a jug of punch With a jug of punch at my head and feet Too ra loo ra loo, too ra loo ra lay, Too ra loo ra loo, too ra loo ra lay, Too ra loo ra loo, too ra loo ra lay Too ra loo ra loo, too ra loo ra lay Upon his knee a pretty wench Just lay me down in my native peat And on the table a jug of punch With a jug of punch at my head and feet G G Let the doctors come with all their art They'll make no impression upon my heart Even a cripple forgets his hunch When he's snug outside of a jug of punch Too ra loo ra loo, too ra loo ra lay, BARITONE G Too ra loo ra loo, too ra loo ra lay Even a cripple forgets his hunch When he's snug outside of a jug of punch

A Scottish Soldier (Andy Stewart, 1960; Tune "Green Hills of Tyrol")

There was a soldier, a Scottish soldier

Who wandered far away and soldiered far away

There was none bolder, with good broad shoulders

He fought in many a fray, and fought and won

He'd seen the glory, he'd told the story

Of battles glorious and deeds victorious

But now he's sighing, his heart is crying

To leave these green hills of Tyrol

Chorus:

Because those green hills are not Highland Hills Or the Island Hills, they're not my land's hills And fair as these green foreign hills may be,

They are not the hills of home

And now this soldier, this Scottish soldier

Who wandered far away and soldiered far away

Sees leaves are falling, and Death is calling

And he will fade away in that far land

He called his piper, his trusty piper

And bade him sound a lay a pibroch sad to play

Upon a hillside, a Scottish hillside

D7

Not on these green hills of Tyrol

(Chorus)

And now this soldier, this Scottish soldier

Will wander far no more and soldier far no more

And on a hillside, a Scottish hillside

D7

You'll see a piper play his soldier home

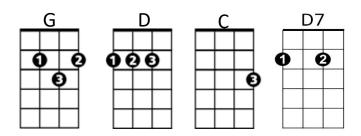

He's seen the glory, he's told the story

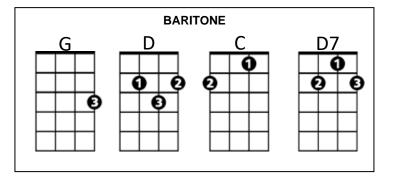

Of battles glorious and deeds victorious

The bugles cease now, he is at peace now

Far from those green hills of Tyrol

(Chorus)

Black Velvet Band (Ronnie Drew, Luke Kelly, Barney Mac Kenna, Ciaran Bourke, John Sheehan) As performed by The Dubliners

C
In a neat little town they call Belfast
F
G
Apprenticed to trade I was bound
C
Am
And many an hour of sweet happiness
F
C
I've I spent in that neat little town

But a sad misfortune's come over me Which caused me to stray from the land Far away from me friends and companions Betrayed by the black velvet band

Chorus:

C
Her eyes they shone like diamonds
F G
I thought her the queen of the land
C Am
And her hair hung over her shoulder
F G C
Tied up with a black velvet band

I took a stroll down Broadway Intending not long for to stay When who should I meet but this pretty fair maid Come traipsing along the highway

She was both fair and handsome
Her neck it was white like a swan
And her hair hung down from her shoulders
Held up with a black velvet band

(Chorus)

I took a stroll with this pretty fair maid Met a gentleman as he passed by Sure, I knew she meant the doing of him By the look in her roguish black eye

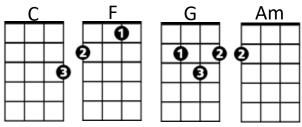

A gold watch she took from his pocket And placed it right into my hand And the very first thing that I said was "What's this?" to the black velvet band (Chorus) But before the Judge and the Jury Next morning I had to appear And the judge he says to me "Young man, Your case it is proven and clear

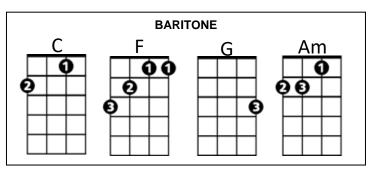

I'll give you seven years penal servitude
To be spent far away from the land
Far away from your friends and companions"
Betrayed by the black velvet band
(Chorus)

So come all you jolly young fellows
A warning take from me
And if you go out on the town, me boys,
Beware of the pretty Colleens

They'll feed you with strong drink, my lads, 'Til you are unable to stand And the very first thing that you'll know is You've landed in Van Diemen's Land

C
Her eyes they shone like diamonds
F
G
I thought she was queen of the land
C
Am
Now I'm far from my friends and companions
F
C
Betrayed by the black velvet band.

Dirty Old Town (Ewan MacColl, 1949) Key C

I met my love by the gas works wall

Dreamed a dream by the old canal

I kissed my girl by the factory wall

Dirty old town, dirty old town

Clouds are drifting across the moon

Cats are prowling on their beat

Springs a girl from the streets at night

Dirty old town, dirty old town

I heard a siren from the docks

Saw a train set the night on fire

I smelled the spring on the smoky wind

Dirty old town, dirty old town

I'm gonna make me a big sharp axe

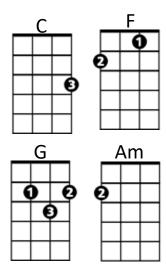

Shining steel tempered in the fire

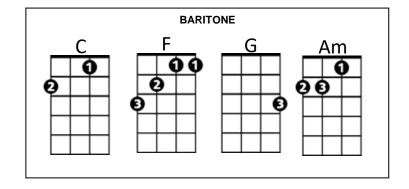

I'll chop you down like an old dead tree

Dirty old town, dirty old town

(Repeat First Verse)

If you listen I'll sing you a sweet little song They may sing of their roses, Of a flower that's now drooped and dead, Which by other names, Yet dearer to me, yes than all of its mates, Would smell just as sweetly, they say. But I know that my Rose Though each holds a-loft its proud head. T'was given to me by a girl that I know, Would never con-sent Since we've met, To have that sweet name taken a-way. Her glances are shy when e'er I pass by Faith I've known no re-pose. ## Pretty Irish Girl (Lawrence Edward Watkin & Oliver Wallace, 1959) - Key C C7 - F7 Have you ever seen the seagulls, a-flyin' o'er the heather?

Am D7 Or the crimson sails on Galway Bay the fishermen un-furl? - F7

Oh, the earth is filled with beauty, and it's gathered all together

In the form and face and dainty grace of a pretty Irish girl.

Chorus

G7 F Oh, she's my dear, my darlin' one, her eves so sparklin' full of fun D7 No other, no other, can match the likes of her

G7 She's my dear, my darlin' one, my smilin' and beguilin' one

(D7) G7 C D7 C I love the ground she walks upon - my pretty I - rish girl

When the dew is on the hayrick, and ev'ry drop a pearl?

- F7

When the geese are full of blarney, and the thrush is singing Gaelic

And standing in the doorway is a pretty Irish Girl. Chorus

- F7 C7

When I'm parted from my darlin', my sighs would sail a schooner Am D7

And when I cannot reach her, sure my tears would turn a mill

Since she cannot be un-kind, to any helpless creature D7

I think that I will marry me a pretty Irish girl! Chorus

C
Hark when the night is falling, Hear! Hear! The pipes are calling,
F C G
Loudly and proudly calling, down thro' the glen.
C
There where the hills are sleeping, now feel the blood a-leaping,
F C G C
High as the spirits of the old Highland men.

Towering in gallant fame, Scotland my mountain hame,
Am D7 G G7
High may your proud standards gloriously wa ve!
C
Land of my high endeavour, land of the shining river,
F C G C
Land of my heart for ever, Scotland the Brave.

C
High in the misty Highlands out by the purple islands,
FCGGG7
Brave are the hearts that beat beneath Scottish skies.
C
Wild are the winds to meet you, staunch are the friends that greet you,
FCGGC
Kind as the love that shines from fair maidens' eyes.

(Chorus)

C
Far off in sunlit places, sad are the Scottish faces,

F C G

Yearning to feel the kiss of sweet Scottish rain.

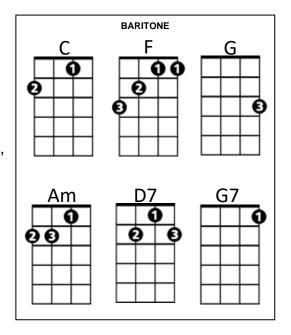

C
Where are the tropics beaming, love sets the heart a-dreaming,

F C G C

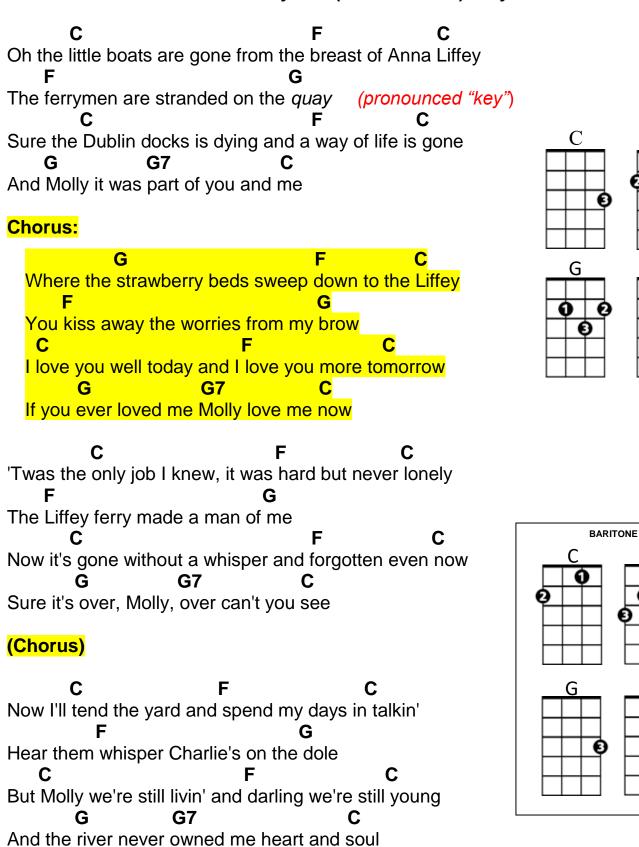

Longing and dreaming for the hameland again.

E Land of my heart for ever, Scotland the Brave!

The Orange and the Green (Anthony Murphy, ca. 1965)

Chorus:

C

Am

Oh, it is the biggest mixup

G

That you have ever seen

C

Me father was an Orangemen,

C

Me mother she was green.

C

Am

Oh, me father was an Ulsterman,

G

Proud Protestant was he

C

Me mother was a Catholic girl

C

From County Cork was she.

Am

They were married in two churches

G

And lived happily enough

Until the day that I was born

C

And things got rather tough.

(Chorus)

Baptized by father Reilly
I was rushed away by car
To be made a little Orangeman,
Me father's shining star.
I was christened David Anthony
But still in spite of that
To me father I was Billy
While me mother called me Pat.

(Chorus)

With mother every Sunday To Mass I'd proudly stroll And after that the orange Lord Would try to save me soul. And both sides tried to claim me, But I was smart because I'd play the flute, I'd play the harp Depending were I was

(Chorus)

And when I'd sing those rebel songs
Much to me mother's joy
Me father would jump up and say
"Look here, now Bill me boy!
That's quite enough of that lot.",
He'd toss me o'er a coin
He'd have me sing The Orange Flute
Or the Heroes of The Boyne.

(Chorus)

One day me Ma's relations
Came round to visit me.
Just as my father's kinfolk were
Sitting down to tea.
We tried to smooth things over,
But they all began to fight.
And me, being strictly neutral,
I kicked everyone in sight.

(Chorus)

My parents never could agree About my type of school. My learning was all done at home, That's why I'm such a fool. They've both passed on, God rest 'em, But I was left between That awful color problem Of the Orange and the Green.

Who should I spy but the Spanish lady
Brushing her hair in the broad daylight
First she brushed it, then she tossed it
On her lap was a silver comb
In all me life I ne'er did see
A maid so fair since I did roam (Chorus)

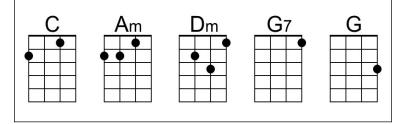

As I returned to Dublin City
As the sun began to set
Who should I spy but a Spanish lady
Catching a moth, in a golden net
First she saw me, then she fled me
Lifted her petticoats o'er her knee
In all me life I ne'er did see
A maid so fair as the Spanish lady
(Chorus)

I stopped to look but the Watchman passed Says he, "Young fella, now the night is late" Along with ye now or I will wrestle ya Straight way through the Bridewell Gate I threw a kiss to the Spanish lady Hot as a fire of angry coal In all me life I ne'er did see A maid so sweet about the soul (Chorus)

As I went out through Dublin City
As the hour of dawn was 'oer
Who should I see but the Spanish lady
I was lonely and footsore
First she coaxed me, then she chid me
Then she laughed at my sad plight
In all me time I ne'er did see

The Wearing Of The Green (Dion Boucicault, 1864; anonymous ballad, 1841) (C)

Intro (last line of verse) F C G C
C O Paddy dear, and did ye hear the news that's goin' round? F C G C The shamrock is for-bid by law to grow on Irish ground!
C Saint Patrick's Day no more we'll keep, his color can't be seen,
For there's a bloody law ag'in the wearin' of the green."
C G I met with Napper Tandy, and he took me by the hand, F C G C
And he said, "How's poor old Ireland, and how does she stand?" C G
"She's the most distressful country that ever you have seen, F C G C
For they're hanging men and women there, for the wearin' of the green."
C "Then since the color we must wear is England's cruel red, F C G C
Sure Ireland's sons will ne'er forget, the blood that they have shed, C G
Sure take the Shamrock from your hat, and cast it on the sod, F C G C
But 'twill take root and flourish, still tho' under foot 'tis trod,
C When law can stop the blades of grass from growing as they grow, F C G C
And when the leaves in summer-time their verdure dare not shun. C G
Then I will change the color I wear in my corbeen, F C G C
But till that day, please God, I'll stick to the wearin' o' the green.

The Wild Colonial Boy (Traditional)

C G7 G7 There was a wild colonial boy, Surrender now, Jack Dug-gan, Jack Duggan was his name For you see we're three to one. He was born and raised in Ireland, Surrender in the Queen's high name, You are a plundering son In a place called Castlemaine He was his father's only son, Jack drew two pistols from his belt, His mother's pride and joy He proudly waved them high. And dearly did his parents love "I'll fight, but not surrender," The wild colonial boy Said the wild colonial boy C G7 C F G7 At the early age of sixteen years, He fired a shot at Kel-ly, He left his native home Which brought him to the ground And to Australia's sunny shore, And turning round to Da - vis, G7 He was inclined to roam He received a fatal wound He robbed the rich, he helped the poor, A bullet pierced his proud young heart, G7 G7 He shot James MacEvoy From the pistol of Fitzroy A terror to Australia was the wild colonial boy And that was how they captured him, G7 C G7 The wild colonial boy One morning on the pra - irie, G As Jack he rode along A-listening to the mocking bird, A-singing a cheerful song Up stepped a band of troopers: BARITONE G7 Kelly, Davis and Fitzroy They all set out to capture him, The wild colonial boy

The Wild Rover (Traditional) (The Dubliners) Chorus: And it's no, nay, never, (THREE CLAPS) No nay never no more, (TWO CLAPS) Will I play the wild rover (ONE CLAP) No never no more. C I've been a wild rover for many a year And I spent all my money on whiskey and beer, And now I'm returning with gold in great store (Chorus) And I never will play the wild rover no more. I went to an ale-house I used to frequent And I told the landlady my money was spent. I asked her for credit, she answered me "Nay Such a custom as yours I could have any day." (Chorus) BARITONE G C I took from my pocket ten sovereigns bright And the landlady's eyes opened wide with delight. She said "I have whiskey and wines of the best And the words that I spoke sure were only in jest." (Chorus) C I'll go home to my parents, confess what I've done

And I'll ask them to pardon their prodigal son.

Sure I never will play the wild rover no more. (Chorus) 2x

And if they forgive me as oft times before
