A Scottish Soldier (Andy Stewart, 1960; Tune "Green Hills of Tyrol")

G There was a soldier, a Scottish soldier D
G Who wandered far away and soldiered far away G There was none bolder, with good broad shoulders D
D7
G He fought in many a fray, and fought and won

GHe'd seen the glory, he'd told the storyDGOf battles glorious and deeds victoriousGBut now he's sighing, his heart is cryingDD7GTo leave these green hills of Tyrol

Chorus:

CGBecause those green hills are not Highland HillsDGOr the Island Hills, they're not my land's hillsCGAnd fair as these green foreign hills may be,
DDD7GThey are not the hills of home

G

And now this soldier, this Scottish soldier D
G
Who wandered far away and soldiered far away G
Sees leaves are falling, and Death is calling D
D7
G
And he will fade away in that far land

G

He called his piper, his trusty piper D
G
And bade him sound a lay a pibroch sad to play G
Upon a hillside, a Scottish hillside D
D7
G
Not on these green hills of Tyrol

(Chorus)

GAnd now this soldier, this Scottish soldierDGWill wander far no more and soldier far no moreGAnd on a hillside, a Scottish hillsideDD7GYou'll see a piper play his soldier home

G

He's seen the glory, he's told the story D
G
Of battles glorious and deeds victorious G
The bugles cease now, he is at peace now D
D7
G
Far from those green hills of Tyrol

Black Velvet Band (Ronnie Drew, Luke Kelly, Barney Mac Kenna, Ciaran Bourke, John Sheehan) As performed by The Dubliners

С

In a neat little town they call Belfast F G Apprenticed to trade I was bound C Am And many an hour of sweet happiness F G C I've I spent in that neat little town

But a sad misfortune's come over me Which caused me to stray from the land Far away from me friends and companions Betrayed by the black velvet band

Chorus:

C Her eyes they shone like diamonds F G I thought her the queen of the land C Am And her hair hung over her shoulder F G C Tied up with a black velvet band

I took a stroll down Broadway Intending not long for to stay When who should I meet but this pretty fair maid Come traipsing along the highway

She was both fair and handsome Her neck it was white like a swan And her hair hung down from her shoulders Held up with a black velvet band (Chorus)

I took a stroll with this pretty fair maid Met a gentleman as he passed by Sure, I knew she meant the doing of him By the look in her roguish black eye

A gold watch she took from his pocket And placed it right into my hand And the very first thing that I said was "What's this?" to the black velvet band (Chorus) But before the Judge and the Jury Next morning I had to appear And the judge he says to me "Young man, Your case it is proven and clear

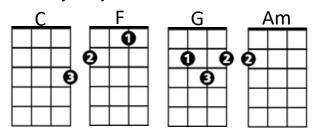

I'll give you seven years penal servitude To be spent far away from the land Far away from your friends and companions" Betrayed by the black velvet band (Chorus)

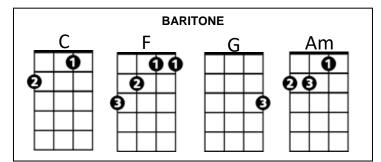

So come all you jolly young fellows A warning take from me And if you go out on the town, me boys, Beware of the pretty Colleens

They'll feed you with strong drink, my lads, 'Til you are unable to stand And the very first thing that you'll know is You've landed in Van Diemen's Land

С

Her eyes they shone like diamonds F GI thought she was queen of the land C AmNow I'm far from my friends and companions F G CBetrayed by the black velvet band.

Finnegan's Wake (Traditional. 1864)

CAmTim Finnegan lived in Walkin Street,
FGFGA gentle Irishman mighty odd
CAmHe'd a beautiful brogue so rich and sweet,
FGFGCTo rise in the world he carried a hod
CAmYou see he'd a sort of a tippler's way
CAmWith the love for the liquor poor Tim was born
CAmTo help him on his work each day,
FGCHe'd a drop of the craythur every mornG

Refrain:

CAmWhack fol the dah now dance to yer partnerFGWelt the floor yer trotters shakeCAmWasn't it the truth I told you?FGCCLots of fun at Finnegan's Wake

Am One morning Tim got rather full, G His head felt heavy which made him shake Am Fell from a ladder and he broke his skull, С G And they carried him home his corpse to wake Am Rolled him up in a nice clean sheet, Am And laid him out upon the bed С Am A gallon of whiskey at his feet And a barrel of porter at his head (Refrain)

CAmHis friends assembled at the wake,FGAnd Mrs. Finnegan called for lunch

CAmFirst they brought in tay and cake,
FGFGCAmBiddy O'Brien began to cry,
CAm"Such a nice clean corpse, did you ever see,
CAmTim avourneen, why did you die?",
FGCAm

(Refrain)

С Am Then Maggie O'Connor took up the job, "Biddy" says she "you're wrong, I'm sure" С Am Biddy gave her a belt in the gob F And left her sprawling on the floor Am Then the war did soon engage, Am T'was woman to woman and man to man С Am Shillelagh law was all the rage С And a row and a ruction soon began

(Refrain)

С Am Then Mickey Maloney raised his head When a bucket of whiskey flew at him Am It missed, and falling on the bed, G The liquor scattered over Tim Am Tim revives, see how he rises, Am Timothy rising from the bed Am Said "Whirl your whiskey around like blazes, F С Thanum an Dhul, do ye think I'm dead?"

Scotland the Brave (Cliff Hanley, 1950. Arr. Marion McClurg)

C Hark when the night is falling, Hear! Hear! The pipes are calling, F C G Loudly and proudly calling, down thro' the glen. C

There where the hills are sleeping, now feel the blood a-leaping, F C G C High as the spirits of the old Highland men.

Chorus:

High in the misty Highlands out by the purple islands, F C G G7 Brave are the hearts that beat beneath Scottish skies. C Wild are the winds to meet you, staunch are the friends that greet you, F C G C Kind as the love that shines from fair maidens' eyes.

Green Fields of France (John McDermott / Bobby Edwards / Eric Bogle)

G Em С Am Well how do you do young Willie McBride, D7 С G Do you mind if I sit here down by your graveside, Em С Am And rest for a while in the warm summer sun, D7 D С I've been walking all day and I'm nearly done. G Em С Am I see by your gravestone you were only 19, D С G D7 When you joined the great fallen in 1916, Em Am Well I hope you died quick and I hope you died clean, D7 С G

Or Willie McBride was it slow and obscene.

Chorus:

G D7 D Did they beat the drum slowly, С G Did they play the fife lowly, D D7 Did they sound the death march, As they lowered you down, G Em Am Did the band play the Last Post and Chorus, D7 G G C Did the pipes play the Flowers of the Fo - rest.

G Em С Am And did you leave a wife or a sweetheart behind, D7 С D G In some loyal heart is your memory enshrined, Em C Am And though you died back in 1916, D D7 С G To that loyal heart you're forever 19. Em С Am G Or are you a stranger without even a name, D С G D7 Forever enshrined behind some old glass pane, G Em Am In an old photograph all torn tattered and stained, D7 С And faded to yellow in a brown leather frame.

G Em С The sun's shining down on these green fields of Am France. D7 D С The warm wind blows gently and the red poppies G dance. Em С Am The trenches have vanished long under the plow D D7 С G No gas, no barbed wire, no guns firing now. Em Am G С But here in this graveyard it's still "No Man's Land", D7 С G The countless white crosses in mute witness stand. G Em Am To man's blind indifference to his fellow man, D D7 С And a whole generation that were butchered and G damned.

(Chorus)

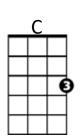

(Chorus) 2x

G Em С Am And I can't help but wonder, oh Willie McBride D7 D С G Do all those who lie here know why they died, Em Did you really believe them when they told you Am the cause D7 Did you really believe that this war would end G wars. G Em Well, the suffering, the sorrow, the glory, the Am shame D7 D С G The killing and dying it was all done in vain, Em Am G Oh Willie McBride it all happened again, D7 G D С And again, and again, and again, and again.

The Orange and the Green (Anthony Murphy, ca. 1965)

Chorus: C Am Oh, it is the biggest mixup G That you have ever seen F C Me father was an Orangemen, G C Me mother she was green.

Am Oh, me father was an Ulsterman, Proud Protestant was he F С Me mother was a Catholic girl G С From County Cork was she. Am They were married in two churches G And lived happily enough F С Until the day that I was born G С And things got rather tough.

(Chorus)

Baptized by father Reilly I was rushed away by car To be made a little Orangeman, Me father's shining star. I was christened David Anthony But still in spite of that To me father I was Billy While me mother called me Pat.

(Chorus)

With mother every Sunday To Mass I'd proudly stroll And after that the orange Lord Would try to save me soul. And both sides tried to claim me, But I was smart because I'd play the flute, I'd play the harp Depending were I was

(Chorus)

And when I'd sing those rebel songs Much to me mother's joy Me father would jump up and say "Look here, now Bill me boy! That's quite enough of that lot.", He'd toss me o'er a coin He'd have me sing The Orange Flute Or the Heroes of The Boyne.

(Chorus)

One day me Ma's relations Came round to visit me. Just as my father's kinfolk were Sitting down to tea. We tried to smooth things over, But they all began to fight. And me, being strictly neutral, I kicked everyone in sight.

(Chorus)

My parents never could agree About my type of school. My learning was all done at home, That's why I'm such a fool. They've both passed on, God rest 'em, But I was left between That awful color problem Of the Orange and the Green.

Notes

- 1. Paddy's lost the craic means Ireland has lost its sense of fun, sense of humor, or it's been taken away from them.
- 2. Delira from the root word for delirious, delight
- From Urban Dictionary, 2011: delira and excira Irish exclamation of happiness, popularised by chat show host Gay Byrne. Probable abbreviation of delirious and excited. "I was delira and excira when I heard Gay Byrne is retiring from the Late Late show".
- 4. 'Fan sa bhaile le do thoil' means 'stay at home please!'
- 5. 'Dochas linn Naomh Padraig' means 'give us hope St Patrick'

Songwriter says she played it in G with a capo on the second fret (G, C, D7). This might be good for those who have a hard time playing B, E, and F#7
