A Jug of Punch (Paddy Clancy / Tom Clancy / Liam Clancy / Tommy Makem)

One pleasant evening in the month of June And if I get drunk, well, the money's me own As I was sitting with my glass and spoon And if they don't like me they can leave me alone I'll tune me fiddle and I'll rosin me bow A small bird sat on an ivy bunch And the song he sang was "The Jug of Punch" And I'll be welcome wherever I go Too ra loo ra loo, too ra loo ra lay, Too ra loo ra loo, too ra loo ra lay, Too ra loo ra loo, too ra loo ra lay Too ra loo ra loo, too ra loo ra lay A small bird sat on an ivy bunch I'll tune me fiddle and I'll rosin me bow And the song he sang was "The Jug of Punch" And I'll be welcome wherever I go G G What more diversion can a man desire? And when I'm dead and in my grave Than to sit him down by snug turf fire No costly tombstone will I have Upon his knee a pretty wench Just lay me down in my native peat And on the table a jug of punch With a jug of punch at my head and feet Too ra loo ra loo, too ra loo ra lay, Too ra loo ra loo, too ra loo ra lay, Too ra loo ra loo, too ra loo ra lay Too ra loo ra loo, too ra loo ra lay Upon his knee a pretty wench Just lay me down in my native peat And on the table a jug of punch With a jug of punch at my head and feet G G Let the doctors come with all their art They'll make no impression upon my heart Even a cripple forgets his hunch When he's snug outside of a jug of punch Too ra loo ra loo, too ra loo ra lay, BARITONE G Too ra loo ra loo, too ra loo ra lay Even a cripple forgets his hunch When he's snug outside of a jug of punch

A Scottish Soldier (Andy Stewart, 1960; Tune "Green Hills of Tyrol")

There was a soldier, a Scottish soldier

Who wandered far away and soldiered far away

There was none bolder, with good broad shoulders

He fought in many a fray, and fought and won

He'd seen the glory, he'd told the story

Of battles glorious and deeds victorious

But now he's sighing, his heart is crying

To leave these green hills of Tyrol

Chorus:

Because those green hills are not Highland Hills

Or the Island Hills, they're not my land's hills

And fair as these green foreign hills may be,

They are not the hills of home

And now this soldier, this Scottish soldier

Who wandered far away and soldiered far away

Sees leaves are falling, and Death is calling

And he will fade away in that far land

He called his piper, his trusty piper

And bade him sound a lay a pibroch sad to play

Upon a hillside, a Scottish hillside

D7

Not on these green hills of Tyrol

(Chorus)

And now this soldier, this Scottish soldier

Will wander far no more and soldier far no more

And on a hillside, a Scottish hillside

D7

You'll see a piper play his soldier home

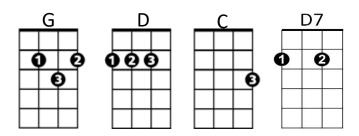

He's seen the glory, he's told the story

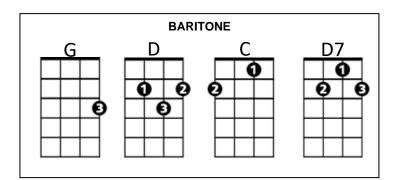

Of battles glorious and deeds victorious

The bugles cease now, he is at peace now

Far from those green hills of Tyrol

(Chorus)

Black Velvet Band (Ronnie Drew, Luke Kelly, Barney Mac Kenna, Ciaran Bourke, John Sheehan) As performed by The Dubliners

C
In a neat little town they call Belfast
F
G
Apprenticed to trade I was bound
C
Am
And many an hour of sweet happiness
F
C
I've I spent in that neat little town

But a sad misfortune's come over me Which caused me to stray from the land Far away from me friends and companions Betrayed by the black velvet band

Chorus:

C
Her eyes they shone like diamonds
F
G
I thought her the queen of the land
C
Am
And her hair hung over her shoulder
F
G
Tied up with a black velvet band

I took a stroll down Broadway Intending not long for to stay When who should I meet but this pretty fair maid Come traipsing along the highway

She was both fair and handsome
Her neck it was white like a swan
And her hair hung down from her shoulders
Held up with a black velvet band

(Chorus)

I took a stroll with this pretty fair maid Met a gentleman as he passed by Sure, I knew she meant the doing of him By the look in her roguish black eye

A gold watch she took from his pocket And placed it right into my hand And the very first thing that I said was "What's this?" to the black velvet band (Chorus) But before the Judge and the Jury Next morning I had to appear And the judge he says to me "Young man, Your case it is proven and clear

I'll give you seven years penal servitude
To be spent far away from the land
Far away from your friends and companions"
Betrayed by the black velvet band
(Chorus)

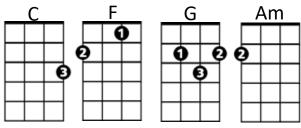

So come all you jolly young fellows
A warning take from me
And if you go out on the town, me boys,
Beware of the pretty Colleens

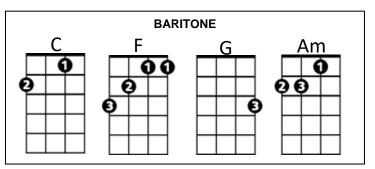

They'll feed you with strong drink, my lads, 'Til you are unable to stand And the very first thing that you'll know is You've landed in Van Diemen's Land

C
Her eyes they shone like diamonds
F
G
I thought she was queen of the land
C
Am

Now I'm far from my friends and companions

Finnegan's Wake (Traditional. 1864)

C Am	C Am
Tim Finnegan lived in Walkin Street,	First they brought in tay and cake,
F G A gentle Irishman mighty odd	F G C Then pipes, tobacco and whiskey punch
C Am	C Am
He'd a beautiful brogue so rich and sweet,	Biddy O'Brien began to cry,
F G C	C Am
To rise in the world he carried a hod C Am	"Such a nice clean corpse, did you ever see, C Am
You see he'd a sort of a tippler's way	Tim avourneen, why did you die?",
C Am	F G C
With the love for the liquor poor Tim was born C Am	"Arrah hold your gob!" said Paddy McGee
To help him on his work each day,	(Refrain)
F G C	C Am
He'd a drop of the craythur every morn	Then Maggie O'Connor took up the job,
Refrain:	"Biddy" says she "you're wrong, I'm sure"
C Am	C Am
Whack fol the dah now dance to yer partner G	Biddy gave her a belt in the gob F G C
Welt the floor yer trotters shake	And left her sprawling on the floor
C Am Wasn't it the truth I told you?	C Am Then the war did soon engage,
F G C	C Am
Lots of fun at Finnegan's Wake	T'was woman to woman and man to man
C Am	C Am Shillelagh law was all the rage
One morning Tim got rather full,	F G C
F G	And a row and a ruction soon began
His head felt heavy which made him shake C Am	(Refrain)
Fell from a ladder and he broke his skull,	C Am
F G C	Then Mickey Maloney raised his head
And they carried him home his corpse to wake C Am	F G When a bucket of whiskey flew at him
Rolled him up in a nice clean sheet,	C Am
C Am	It missed, and falling on the bed,
And laid him out upon the bed	F G C
C Am A gallon of whiskey at his feet	The liquor scattered over Tim C Am
F G C	Tim revives, see how he rises,
And a barrel of porter at his head	C Am
(Refrain)	Timothy rising from the bed C Am
C Am	Said "Whirl your whiskey around like blazes,
His friends assembled at the wake,	F G C
And Mrs. Finnegan called for lunch	Thanum an Dhul, do ye think I'm dead?"
or i innogari oanoa for larion	(Refrain) (2x)

There's a little lass and her name is Mary Mac

Make no mistake, she's the girl I'm gonna track Dm

Lots of other fellows, wanna get up on her back C Dm

But I'm thinking that they'd have to get up early

Chorus:

Dm

Mary Mac's father's making Mary Mac marry me

My father's making me marry Mary Mac

Well, I'm gonna marry Mary

For my Mary to take care of me

C

We'll all be making merry when I marry Mary Mac

Dm

Well, this little lass, she has a lot of class

Got a lot of brass

And her father thinks I'm gas

Dm

So I'd be a silly ass

for to let the matter pass

C Dm

My father says she suits me really fairly

(Chorus)

Dm

Mary and her mother go an awful lot together

In fact you'd hardly ever see

The one without the other

Dm

And all the people wonder if it's Mary or her mother

C Dr

Or the both of them together that I'm courting

(Chorus)

Dm

The Wedding's on a Wednesday

And everything's arranged

C

Soon her name will change to mine

Unless her mind is changed

Dm

We're making the arrangements

And I'm just about deranged

Dm .

For marriage is an awful undertaking

(Chorus)

Scotland the Brave (Cliff Hanley, 1950. Arr. Marion McClurg)

C
Hark when the night is falling, Hear! Hear! The pipes are calling,

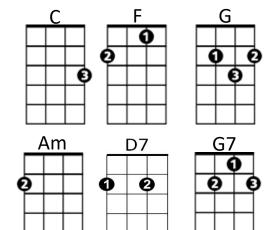

F C G

Loudly and proudly calling, down thro' the glen.

C
There where the hills are sleeping, now feel the blood a-leaping,

F C G C

High as the spirits of the old Highland men.

Chorus:

Towering in gallant fame, Scotland my mountain hame,

Am D7 G G7

High may your proud standards gloriously wa ve!

C

Land of my high endeavour, land of the shining river,

F C G C

Land of my heart for ever, Scotland the Brave.

C
High in the misty Highlands out by the purple islands,
F C G G7
Brave are the hearts that beat beneath Scottish skies.
C
Wild are the winds to meet you, staunch are the friends that greet you,
F C G C
Kind as the love that shines from fair maidens' eyes.

(Chorus)

С

Far off in sunlit places, sad are the Scottish faces,

C

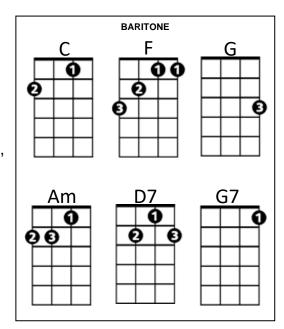

Yearning to feel the kiss of sweet Scottish rain.

Where are the tropics beaming, love sets the heart a-dreaming, F C G C

Longing and dreaming for the hameland again.

(Chorus)

F C G C Land of my heart for ever, Scotland the Brave!

The Orange and the Green (Anthony Murphy, ca. 1965)

Chorus:

C

Am

Oh, it is the biggest mixup

G

That you have ever seen

C

Me father was an Orangemen,

C

Me mother she was green.

Am

Oh, me father was an Ulsterman,

G

Proud Protestant was he

C

Me mother was a Catholic girl

C

From County Cork was she.

Am

They were married in two churches

G

And lived happily enough

Until the day that I was born

And things got rather tough.

(Chorus)

Baptized by father Reilly
I was rushed away by car
To be made a little Orangeman,
Me father's shining star.
I was christened David Anthony
But still in spite of that
To me father I was Billy
While me mother called me Pat.

(Chorus)

With mother every Sunday To Mass I'd proudly stroll And after that the orange Lord Would try to save me soul. And both sides tried to claim me, But I was smart because I'd play the flute, I'd play the harp Depending were I was

(Chorus)

And when I'd sing those rebel songs
Much to me mother's joy
Me father would jump up and say
"Look here, now Bill me boy!
That's quite enough of that lot.",
He'd toss me o'er a coin
He'd have me sing The Orange Flute
Or the Heroes of The Boyne.

(Chorus)

One day me Ma's relations
Came round to visit me.
Just as my father's kinfolk were
Sitting down to tea.
We tried to smooth things over,
But they all began to fight.
And me, being strictly neutral,
I kicked everyone in sight.

(Chorus)

My parents never could agree
About my type of school.
My learning was all done at home,
That's why I'm such a fool.
They've both passed on, God rest 'em,
But I was left between
That awful color problem
Of the Orange and the Green.

(Chorus)

The Wild Colonial Boy (Traditional)

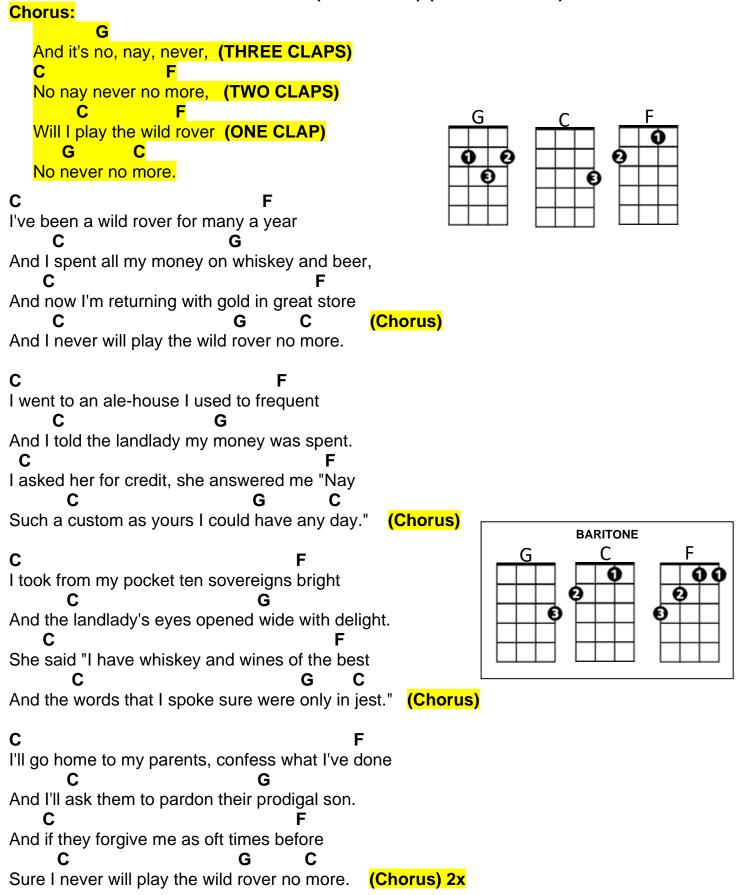

C G7 There was a wild colonial boy, Jack Duggan was his name He was born and raised in Ireland, In a place called Castlemaine He was his father's only son, His mother's pride and joy And dearly did his parents love The wild colonial boy C G7 At the early age of sixteen years, He left his native home And to Australia's sunny shore, G7 He was inclined to roam He robbed the rich, he helped the poor, G7 He shot James MacEvoy A terror to Australia was the wild colonial boy C G7 One morning on the pra - irie, As Jack he rode along A-listening to the mocking bird, A-singing a cheerful song Up stepped a band of troopers: Kelly, Davis and Fitzroy They all set out to capture him, The wild colonial boy

G7 Surrender now, Jack Dug-gan, For you see we're three to one. Surrender in the Queen's high name, You are a plundering son Jack drew two pistols from his belt, He proudly waved them high. "I'll fight, but not surrender," Said the wild colonial boy C F G7 He fired a shot at Kel-ly, Which brought him to the ground And turning round to Da - vis, He received a fatal wound A bullet pierced his proud young heart, G7 From the pistol of Fitzroy And that was how they captured him, G7 The wild colonial boy G

Whiskey in the Jar (Traditional) (The Dubliners)

C Am As I was goin' over the far famed Kerry Mountains, C Am 'twas early in the morning, just before I rose to travel I met with Captain Farrel and his money he was countin' Up comes a band of footmen and likewise Captain C Farrell I first produced me pistol and then produced me C Am I first produced me pistol for she stole away me rapier I couldn't shoot the water, so a prisoner I was taken Sayin' "Stand and deliver, for he were the bold deceiver!" (Chorus) Chorus: Am Now there's some take delight in the carriages a-Musha ring ruma du ruma da rolling Whack fol the daddy O, And others take delight in the hurling and the bowling Whack fol the daddy O, But I take delight in the juice of the barley There's whiskey in the jar. And courting pretty fair maids in the morning bright and early I counted out his money and it made a pretty penny (Chorus) I put it in me pocket and I took it home to Jenny C If anyone can aid me 't'is me brother in the army She sighed and she swore that she never would deceive me If I can find his station in Cork or in Killarney But the devil take the women for they never can be And if he'll go with me, we'll go rovin' through Killkenny C (Chorus) And I'm sure he'll treat me better than me own asporting Jenny Am I went up to me chamber, all for to take a slumber (Chorus) 2x F I dreamt of gold and jewels and for sure it was no Am wonder But Jenny drew me charges and she filled them up with water Then sent for Captain Farrell to be ready for the slaughter BARITONE G Αm (Chorus) ø

Notes

- 1. Paddy's lost the craic means Ireland has lost its sense of fun, sense of humor, or it's been taken away from them.
- 2. Delira from the root word for delirious, delight
- 3. From Urban Dictionary, 2011: delira and excira Irish exclamation of happiness, popularised by chat show host Gay Byrne. Probable abbreviation of delirious and excited. "I was delira and excira when I heard Gay Byrne is retiring from the Late Late show".
- 4. 'Fan sa bhaile le do thoil' means 'stay at home please!'
- 5. 'Dochas linn Naomh Padraig' means 'give us hope St Patrick'

Songwriter says she played it in G with a capo on the second fret (G, C, D7). This might be good for those who have a hard time playing B, E, and F#7
