The Skye Boat Song (C)
Version 2 – Lyrics by Robert Louis Stevenson (1887) to a traditional air collected by Anne Campbelle MacLeod (1870's)
The Skye Boat Song by Kathryn Jones (¾ Time)

Intro (First 2 lines of chorus)   C | Am | Dm7 | G7 | C | F | G7 |

Chorus

C          Am        Dm7         G7
Sing me a song of a lad  that is gone,
C              F       G7
Say, could that lad be I?
C          Am        Dm7         G7
Merry of soul he sailed on a day
C          F       C  |  C
Over the sea to Skye.

Am              Dm
Mull was astern, Rum on the port,
Am          F        Am  |  Am
Eigg on the starboard bow;        [ Eigg: roughly "Eck" ]
Am            Dm
Glory of youth glowed in his soul:
Am             F     Am  |  G7
Where is that glory now?  Chorus

Am              Dm
Give me again all that was there,
Am          F          Am  |  Am
Give me the sun that shone!
Am              Dm
Give me the eyes, give me the soul,
Am          F              Am  |  G7
Give me the lad (lass) that's gone!  Chorus

Am                 Dm
Billow and breeze, islands and seas,
Am          F        Am  |  Am
Mountains of rain and sun,
Am            Dm
All that was good, all that was fair,
Am          F     Am  |  Dm  |  Am
All that was me is gone.
