Yes, a travel-in' man always longs for a home
Em E7 F G7 C - C
'Cause a travel-in' man is always a-lone.

Verse 1:

C F E7 Am
I've traveled from Maine to the Barbary shore,
Em E7 F G7 C
But I'm gettin' so weary, I can't travel no more.
C F E7 Am
I rambled the highways and sailed 'cross the sea,
Em E7 F G7 C
Wond'r in', always wond'r in' where the next stop would be. Chorus.

Bridge:

C E7 F G7 C
Seen the mansions of England, the villas of Rome;
C+ F D7 G7
Each man has his castle, but the road's been my home.

Verse 2:

C F E7 Am
So fair-thee-well ladies, there's none quite so fair,
Em E7 F G7 C
But a travel-in' man has only one prayer:
C F E7 Am
To be just a farmer with a plow and a hoe,
Em E7 F G7 C
In-stead of a drifter with no place to go. Chorus.
