Verse 1:

G C B7 Em
I've traveled from Maine to the Barbary shore,
Bm B7 C D7 G
But I'm gettin' so weary, I can't travel no more.
G C B7 Em
I rambled the highways and sailed 'cross the sea,
Bm B7 C D7 G
Wond'r'in', always wond'r'in' where the next stop would be. Chorus.

Bridge:

G B7 C D7 G
Seen the mansions of England, the villas of Rome;
G+ C A7 D7
Each man has his castle, but the road's been my home.

Verse 2:

G C B7 Em
So fair-thee-well ladies, there's none quite so fair,
Bm B7 C D7 G
But a travel-in' man has only one prayer:
G C B7 Em
To be just a farmer with a plow and a hoe,
Bm B7 C D7 G
In-stead of a drifter with no place to go. Chorus.
