 Recorded by The New Christy Minstrels on their 1963 album Ramblin'

G7

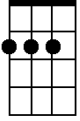

Four measure instrumental introduction, then five measures:

G7

I've been a-ramblin', oo, I've been a-ramblin', oo,

D

G7

I've been ramblin'; Lawd, I've been ramblin'!

I've been north, south, east, west, all up and down the line;

C

I've been waitin', anticipat-in'

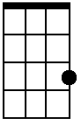

G

G7

Lookin' for the sun to shine.

I've been a-ramblin', oo, I've been a-ramblin', oo,

C

G7

Kansas City, New Orleans;

Just like an old muddy river, I gotta roll along.

C

I gotta ramble, I gotta ramble,

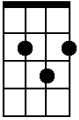

G

G7

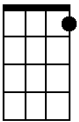

I gotta sing my lonely song.

I've been a-ramblin', oo, I've been a-ramblin', oo,

G

Bari

G7

I had a woman, once I had a woman;

She was the truest woman this world will ever see.

C

Oh well, I loved her; yes I loved her;

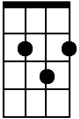

G

G7

And she was true to everyone ... but me. (Poor boy!)

I've been a-ramblin', oo, I've been a-ramblin', oo,

D

G7

Train's a comin'; my train's a-comin',

Can't you hear that lonesome whistle .. moanin' down the track?

C

I gotta ramble, I gotta ramble;

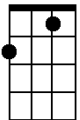

G

G7

I got a feelin' that I won't be back.

I've been a-ramblin', ramblin', poor boy,

C

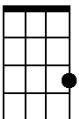

G7

I gotta ramble, Lawd;

I'm movin' North and South, all up and down the line.

Yes, I'm ramblin' ...

G

(Repeat as needed for fade out)
