1. A cowboy's life is a lonely road.

F#7

Yer back gets bent and yer legs get bowed;

D A G D

Ridin' herd from town to town,

A7 D

Make your bed on the cold hard ground.

Bm

2. North to the grass covered plains we go,

F#7

South where the wild winter winds don't blow;

D A G D

Early morning till the day-light's gone,

A7 D F#7

Round up strays and keep a movin' on. Just ...

Chorus.

Bm F#7 Bm A7 D

Ride, ride, ride. Ride, ride, ride.

A G D

I'm been drivin' all over this land,

A7 D F#7

Wide Missouri to the Rio Grande. Ah, oo.

Bm

3. I'll work all day on a dusty trail,

F#7

Spend my nights in a cow-town jail.

D A G D

Live on the cuff till I draw my pay;

A7 D

Drink and gamble and give it all away.

4. Now, all you cowboys, gather round.

F#7

Don't spend your nights on the cold, hard ground.

D A G D

Life is short and the road is long;

A7 D

And only fools would sing this song. Just ...

Chorus.Bm F#7 Bm A7 D

Ride, ride, ride. Ride, ride, ride.

A G D

I'm been drivin' all over this land,

A7 D F#7

Wide Missouri to the Rio Grande. Just.

Bm F#7 Bm A7 D

Ride, ride, ride. Ride, ride, ride.
