Introduction (2 Measures)

Em B7

Spoken: H'yah! C'mon. Yeah!

Em
 1. A cowboy's life is a lonely road.

B7

Yer back gets bent and yer legs get bowed;

G D C G

Ridin' herd from town to town,

D7 G

Make your bed on the cold hard ground.

Em
 2. North to the grass covered plains we go,

B7

South where the wild winter winds don't blow;

G D C G

Early morning till the day-light's gone,

D7 G B7

Round up strays and keep a movin' on. Just ...

Chorus.

Em B7 Em D7 G

Ride, ride, ride. Ride, ride, ride.

D C G

I'm been drivin' all over this land,

D7 G B7

Wide Missouri to the Rio Grande. Ah, oo.

Em
 3. I'll work all day on a dusty trail,

B7

Spend my nights in a cow-town jail.

G D C G

Live on the cuff till I draw my pay;

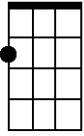

D7 G

Drink and gamble and give it all away.

BariB7 Em

4. Now, all you cowboys, gather round.

Em

B7

Don't spend your nights on the cold, hard ground.

G D C G

Life is short and the road is long;

D7 G

And only fools would sing this song. Just ...

B7Chorus.*Em B7 Em D7 G

Ride, ride, ride. Ride, ride, ride.

D C G

I'm been drivin' all over this land,

D7 G B7

Wide Missouri to the Rio Grande. Just...

Em B7 Em D7 G

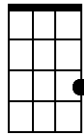

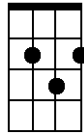

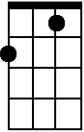

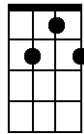

Ride, ride, ride. Ride, ride, ride.

D C G

I'm been drivin' all over this land,

D7 Am7b5 D7 G

Wide Missouri to the Ri - o Grande.
