

While Strolling Through the Park One Day (Ed Haley 1884)

G C
While strolling through the park one day,

A7 D7
In the merry, merry month of May,

G C A7
He was taken by surprise by a pair of roguish eyes,

D7 G
In a moment his poor heart was stole away.

B Em B7 Em
A smile was all she gave to him,

A D A7 D
Of course she was as happy as can be,

G C
He immediately raised his hat,

A7 D7
And finally she remarked,

G C A7
He never will forget that lovely afternoon,

D7 G
He met her at the fountain in the park.

BARITONE